

Youth Entrepreneurial Program & Operation Jumpstart II

The Youth Entrepreneurial Program (YEP) and Operation Jumpstart II were specifically designed for the middle school student, and are easily adaptable to the life of any active pre-teen, or teen. Busy scholars, student athletes, and those with a business wit can receive the assistance needed to improve academically, by receiving tutorial services, as well as, being introduced to test taking strategies, and preparing for the MEAP. Additionally, they will learn about the importance of financial literacy and nutrition.

This is the ONLY program designed to reinforce the educational concerns of the young entrepreneur, and the student athlete, in a middle school environment, while simultaneously developing real world skills. If you want to be a better student, which will make a better prepared member of society, ANGEL LAND is the answer.
